

We have organised a trip to Chichester, the county town of West Sussex with a history of both Roman and Anglo Saxon occupation.

We arrive in time for a cup of coffee followed by a guided tour of the Cathedral.

DATE: Wednesday 14th March 2018

DEPARTURE: PROMPT at 8.30am – from Baker’s Yard (opposite the gasometers)

There will be a 10 minute stop at a service station en route

COST: £23 .50 which includes coach travel, gratuities, cup of coffee and guided tour of the Cathedral. In addition a car parking charge of £2.50 is payable on arrival at Baker’s Yard.

Lunch will be at your own expense. There is a refectory café at the cathedral but in the town there is a good choice of places to eat. Your afternoon will be free.
