The Open Afternoon went very smoothly this time with attendance well spread out, including both old and new members. Everything was set up in good time and at 3 pm Steve Plater demonstrated the defibrillation machine to the hall. Di Latter provided tea and biscuits and several groups reported new membership.

Table Tennis Groups

Sadly renovations at the Leisure Centre have delayed the start of the Table Tennis Groups. The first meeting of Group 1 is postponed to Wednesday, 25th October, and of Group 2 to Wednesday, 1st November.

French for Not Quite Beginners

Prospective members of a new French for Not Quite Beginners met at the Stag cafe on 10th October, to discuss how the new group should be set up. Any member with some basic if rusty French who would like to join will be very welcome, recognising that dates, times and leaders will need to be arranged.

Science Discussion group

I am also trying to set up a second Science Discussion group with a similar meeting at the Stag toward the end of October, but so far have not received confirmation of available dates from sufficient members to do so. I should like more applications for this group, as the original science discussion group has a full membership, with no one at present showing signs of leaving because they enjoy it too much.

A new book has just been published on the Lodges and Coach Houses of Sevenoaks. Co-authored by Elizabeth Purves, photographs by Veronica and Martin Coath, proof read by Celia Smith, and designed by Victoria Granville Baxter, all Sevenoaks U3A members.

The book chronicles the history of the lodges and coach houses in Sevenoaks which still survive. Many of the great houses and Victorian mansions have been demolished but their lodges remain.

Over 50 lodges or coach houses with their host buildings are described and illustrated. Some you will recognise, some you may not!

This book will make an ideal Christmas present. Available for £12 from the Sevenoaks Bookshop or at U3A monthly meetings for £10.
